

Sorry mama

You always give your love, mama
I'm so sorry, so sorry, so sorry, so sorry when I see
What we do to you, I'm so sorry, so sorry, so sorry, so sorry

Hey mama – it hurts me what i see mama
You always gave them your great love mama
It's unbearable to see you secretly cry
Even if you're on the ground, they kick you

Life springs from your fertile womb
You give fire - water - air - sun and rain
You gave us all life
Births, breastfeeds and nourishes us trillions of times housed for life

At the Hotel Mama, but a few of your snotty spoons are rebelling
Have lost respect for you, no longer look up to you
Your children are destroying their children's paradise
I'm the first to understand when you lose patience

You always give your love, mama
I'm so sorry, so sorry, so sorry, so sorry when I see
What we do to you, I'm so sorry, so sorry, so sorry, so sorry

Mama forgive us - we don't know what we're doing,
don't know what we're doing
We haven't come home for far too long, we don't know what we're doing,
we don't know what we're doing – no!

Forgive them mama - they don't know what they're doing
Their senses are clouded, their greed is the nail in your coffin
Don't blame yourself, you raised them well!
But your children forgot
Anything else would be a lie.

They ignore the warning shots - and one thing can be said:
They still treat you as if you had a duplicate
And the only reason you never fought back mother earth
It's because they are your children - there's no other way to explain it

You always give your love, mama
I'm so sorry, so sorry, so sorry, so sorry when I see
What we do to you, I'm so sorry, so sorry, so sorry, so sorry

Mama forgive us - we don't know what we're doing,
don't know what we're doing
We haven't come home for far too long, we don't know what we're doing,
we don't know what we're doing – no!
